Lead to Action; Policy of Wilson UnchangedEL PASO, Texas, Dec. 9.—Batteries
A, B and C of the Sixth Field Artillery, entrained today for Naco, Arizona, to handle the situation resulting from the fighting between Mexican factions across the international border.WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—At the White House it was denied today that the artillery movement to Naco indicated
any change in the "watchful waiting" policy of the administration.
It is merely precautionary."It has been thought wise," the White House statement said, "to strengthen United States forces at Naco because of the reckless carelessness of the two contending factions
across the international border in failing to control the direction of their fire. Of course no aggressive action is contemplated."The action of today follows the decision reached yesterday when, after a brief discussion with his cabinet,
President Wilson directed Secretary Garrison to order sufficient troops to Naco, Ariz., to handle any emergency that might arise in connection with the firing across the American border from Mexican territory.Secretary Garrison accordingly issued orders last night to Gen. John J.
Pershing, commanding the Eighth army brigade on the border, to dispatch
three batteries of field artillery
at once to Naco. He also ordered General Tasker H. Bliss to the scene from San Antonio.President Wilson's decision followed an exchange of telegrams between the federal government and Governor Hunt of Arizona. The firing that led to this exchange was due to a battle between the forces of Gen. Benjamin Hill, a Carranza adherent, and Governor
Maytorena, an ally of Villa, opposite Naco.NACO, Ariz., Dec. 9.—The inhabitants of Naco are jubilant following word received that three companies of artillery are en route to Naco from Texas to protect the border from Mexican belligerents at Naco, Sonora. A reception committee will arrange a warm welcome for the troops who are expected to arrive tomorrow.STEPHENS WORKING FOR
L. A. HARBOR HEARINGWASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—Representative
Stephens is trying to arrange for a hearing before the Rivers and Harbors Committee in behalf of Los Angeles harbor. It has not been definitely decided yet whether there will be a lump sum appropriation covering all river and harbor work or whether the bill will be made up in the usual form with each item specified.Stephens expects at the least to secure for the harbor the money already recommended by the engineers and which was cut out of the last bill on account of the demands for economy.MINERS KILLED BY DEADLY DYNAMITEExplosive Dropped on Floor of Men Down ShaftSCRANTON, Pa., Dec. 9.—Ten miners were instantly killed today while descending in a shaft of the Lackawanna

Coal Company's mine near Scranton.
A miner accidentally dropped a quantity of dynamite on the floor of the elevator cage, destroying it.
The miners fell to the bottom of the shaft.TROUBLES OF ORANGE GROWERS WITH U. S. TESTRIVERSIDE, Dec. 9.—Tests made by the Sutherland Fruit Company show that some oranges are not up to the standard in color, but contain sufficient sugar for the market. Other fruit has the color, but lacks the sugar.
Fruit sent east when containing sugar, but lacking in color, does not sell. It has been shown that some fruit gathers acid in transit. These are a few of the troubles now being met with by the orange packer when complying with the new government requirements.Herrick Boom Is Coincident With French HonorsNEW YORK, Dec. 9.—Former Ambassador to France Myron Herrick arrived here today on the liner Rochambeau. Hundreds of people braved the inclement weather to welcome him home. With his wife, Herrick held an impromptu reception on the pier, and his admirers started an "Ohio's favorite son" movement there for Herrick as the Republican presidential nominee for president in 1916. He refused to talk politics.France conferred the cross of the Legion of Honor upon Herrick by wireless, Commander Dupont of the Rochambeau decorating the former ambassador in the saloon of the Rochambeau yesterday.SECOND STORM

Be ExpectedNEW YORK, Dec. 9.—Another severe storm is advancing on the Atlantic coast from the Gulf of Mexico. It is expected to reach New York and New England soon.CHICAGO, Dec. 9.—Communication was practically cut off again yesterday between Chicago and New York due to Monday's sleet storm. Temperatures rose slightly in all directions.
Chicago's maximum was 41 degrees,
or three degrees warmer than Cincinnati,
and three degrees colder than
St. Louis. All the South was cold,
New Orleans and Jacksonville, Fla., with 54 degrees, being eight degrees
colder than Los Angeles.JAPAN NOW DENIES ALLEGED PLEDGESDeclares No Promises Made as to Territory Captured
During WarTOKIO, Dec. 9.—Interrogated by Parliament today, Japanese Foreign Minister Kato denied categorically that Japan had ever told America that the occupation by Japan of the German possession, Jaluit Island, was but temporary.The minister of marine denied the existence of an Anglo-Japanese agreement concerning the Caroline and Marshall Islands, which the Japanese also seized early in the European war.
These denials followed Minister Kato's announcement yesterday that he had made no promise to any nation concerning the disposition of Kaio Chau.COLOMBIA REMOVES SUSPECTED WIRELESSBOGOTA, Colombia, (via London),
Dec. 9.—The minister of foreign affairs yesterday ordered the removal of the high-power wireless station at Cartagena.Cartagena is a Colombian seaport in the department of Bolivar, on a small sandy peninsula connected with the continent by an artificial neck of land. The operation of a wireless station there has been the subject of energetic protests by the British government, which contended that the plant was being operated by the Germans for the transmission of news to German warships.WAR REFERENDUM IN U. S. IS PROPOSEDPASADENA, Dec. 9.—Resolutions favoring a national referendum on war were adopted by the new Century Club of business and professional men. The club favors an amendment to the constitution forbidding a declaration of any war save one of actual defense, without the approval of a popular vote.Here's Belgian Soldiers' Fighting Method has had $3000 invested in a certain in Los Angeles since 1904, withdrew the same and placed it with the Home Mutual Building and Loan Association of Santa Ana on Monday, December 7. At the meeting of the directors held last evening this money was loaned to help build a new home in Santa Ana. This investment which has assisted in the prosperity of other sections for the past eight years will now be of benefit to Santa Ana and will contribute to the prosperity of this city.

Those who should know estimate that there is over $300,000 of Santa Ana money, and fully $500,000
of Orange county money placed with the building and loan associations
of Los Angeles.
It is agreed that this money
placed with local institutions would be instrumental in erecting 300 more homes in this county and in increasing the population 1500. It would give employment to mechanics and more money
would be placed in circulation.
"Is it not the duty of our good citizens to have their money invested here where it would be of benefit to Santa Ana?" was asked today. "There is no better security for a loan than California county property. Why can not we have this money invested here through our financial institutions?"STATE BANKS WOULD ENTER RESERVE SYSTEMWASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—Representatives of state banks yesterday suggested to the Federal Reserve Board that the bank law be modified so that the state institutions might enter and leave the system at will. Aside from this one suggestion, the state bankers
in conference with the Federal Board made no recommendation, but announced that they desire to have more time to consider questions of how they shall be admitted.NEW REVENUE CUTTER

AID FOR WOUNDED ALLIESWASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 9.—Miss Helen Morton, daughter of former Vice President Levi P. Morton, has organized a collection of woolen garments for the wounded allies in France. The Princess de Poix has cabled Miss Morton she will undertake to have the clothing in the hands of the men within forty-eight hours after it arrives in Paris. Miss Morton is undertaking to receive woolen socks, cardigan jackets, mufflers and the like, and will send them to France at her own expense.Here's Belgian Soldiers' Fighting Method

BRIGADES FOR WARIrishmen, Rebellious in Times of Peace, Rallying to England's SupportBELFAST, Dec. 9.—Ulster has raised three infantry brigades, or, in round numbers, 12,000 men, for Kitch-ener's army. Now, in response to a further appeal for a division, composed of 16,860 men exclusive of artillery, nearly 15,000 have enlisted.
The authorities hope that the various units will be filled up before Christmas, so that the entire division may be ready to begin training at the beginning of the new year.
It is said that the huts which for some time have been in course of erection in the camps near Ulster are near completion, and it is expected that Christmas day will find every man in the division housed comfortably in these structures or in military barracks.MANIACAL ATTACKS ON WOMEN IN LOS ANGELESLOS ANGELES, Dec. 9.—Attached
by a man believed to be a maniac near the intersection of Hope and Second streets, Mrs. E. Williams, aged 22, fought desperately until the police appeared, when the man fled.
The woman's hair and clothing were torn terribly and she was bruised and beaten. This is the third similar attack on this corner within the last three days, the police admitted. A search for the assailant has been instituted.WEATHER FORECASTFor Santa Ana and Vicin-

advices today said that Kaiser Wilhelm is seriously ill. His condition is aggravated by nervous depression due to extreme exertion in connection with his presence at the war front. He is reported as suffering from continuous and severe headaches.According to the Berlin dispatches his behavior toward his advisors and associates is of a violent nature.BERLIN, Dec. 9.—That the Kaiser is seriously ill with pneumonia was announced today. The first public intimation of the Kaiser's illness came yesterday
when it was announced that his departure for the front had been postponed. The first cause of his illness was given as bronchial catarrh, but graver trouble has developed. An official report this morning said his condition was sat-

THEATERS OF WARBelieved Fresh German Troops
Join in Warsaw March; Hot Fighting in GaliciaLONDON, Dec. 9.—There was marked activity today in both theaters of war. The victorious German army in Russian Poland continued its progress toward Warsaw. Dispatches tonight said that a German advance was progressing from the north. This is believed to indicate that comparatively fresh troops are participating in the movement, probably being brought from East Prussia. The Russians are reported as also extending their lines eastward from Lodz. This is believed here to indicate that the armies will probably advance from both directions
on Warsaw.Fighting is in progress along the entire line of the western stage of the war, though it is confined mainly to artillery engagements. Conflicting reports come from Paris and Berlin. The French denied German advances today, while Berlin insisted that the Germans had made progress in the Argonne and that the situation is satisfactory.FUNSTON IS NOMINATED

MARRIAGES TO BE PAID FOR IF THEY WISH

After First of Year No Legal Fees Go to Justices of the Peace

Justice Cox doesn't know where he is going, but he is on the way. That is, he doesn't know just how much the office of justice of the peace of Santa Ana township is going to be worth to him in the next four years, but he knows he has got the office. It is quite well known that Justice Cox does a fair business as a marrying justice. He has $10 a month salary, and has been getting fees, which includes marriage fees as well as fees from civil actions.

Then a constitutional amendment was adopted that decreed that there be no more fees in court cases. At about the same time the legislature passed a law ordering that justices turn over to the county two-thirds of the fees received for marriages. The state thus declared that there are no marriage fees, and soon afterward the justices ordered to turn over two-thirds of the marriage fees he receives.

It seems to be generally conceded over the state that the law doing away with fees hits many a justice of the peace, and Justice Cox is not the only one who has laid awake nights thinking the thing over. Some of them have figured it out this way: The law does away with fees, but that does not prohibit a couple getting married from giving a good looking justice of the peace a bit of money, said money to be a mark of appreciation and friendship, not to be considered a legal fee at all. Suppose it works out that way, popular custom would establish how much money ought to be given the justice.

If this suggestion works out in practice, why the lot of a justice of the peace may not be so bad after all. But if it does not work out that way, the justice must fall back upon a flat salary. In many townships over the state, the flat salary at present is only a minority part of the income of the justice through the office he holds.

Take Cox, for instance. He has a pile of work to do, more work than all the other justices of the county combined. It takes a hustler like Cox to keep up with the speeders, who go to fill up his docket. After what the office has been bringing in, $75 a month, who look mighty slim not only to Cox but to those who know how much of a job he really has.

In some counties a justice gets almost no salary, his income being left almost entirely to fees. Adjustments will be found necessary in a good many counties.

CONTRACT IS AWARDED TO L. A. FIRM

Grading Will Soon Be Started on Section Between Olive and Peralta

Keene and Norton Company of Los Angeles was the successful bidder yesterday for the grading to be done between Olive and Peralta. This section is known as Section 5 of the Riverside road and will join the good roads work already done by the County Highway Commission in the Santa Ana canyon. The contract was awarded yesterday. Other bidders were: George Wiegand, Lamada, $16,410.85; Cahill Bros., $17,376.93; Oscar Ford, Riverside, $17,993.05; Brashers Burns Co., Los Angeles, $17,550.35; Easley Construction Co., Corona, $17,715.37; D. D. Chapman, Los Angeles, $17,993.05; Hart & Dusey, Pasadena, $18,175.57; Richard Rothwell, Los Angeles, $19,031.70; H. E. Cox, Los Angeles, $19,956.60; J. S. Hiland, Anaheim, $22,170.20; Doran & Reed, San Diego, $23,761.06.

Progress on Laguna Road Contractor Chris O'Neil began Monday to tear down the old bridge south of Irvine preparatory to building the new concrete bridge which is to be part of the Laguna road. The pouring of concrete is progressing rapidly on this road, the outfit being very near the bridge at this time. The outlook is extremely favorable at this time that the concrete will have been laid by January 1. The work being done has had no effect of diverting traffic as temporary byways are being maintained.

Bids for paving what is known as Route No. 2, Section A, consisting of five miles from Gallivan to a point about a mile south of San Juan Capistrano, will be opened December 14. Whether the State Highway Commission has taken any steps in regard to delaying the construction of paved roads south of San Juan could not be learned. The request to delay the work was made because it was feared that travel between Los Angeles and San Diego during Exposition year would suffer through the roads being made impassable.

The road through Westminster to Bay City and Long Beach is open, though the paving work has not yet been entirely completed. The work will be completed in about a week, it is stated by the Highway Commission.

COLORADO'S COAL STRIKE IS AT END

Called Off by Unanimous Vote; Strike Began in April, 1910; Has Cost $18,000,000

DENVER, Colo., Dec. 9.—The Colorado strike has been called off, effective December 10.

This action was taken by the convention of District No. 15 of the United Mine Workers of America by a unanimous vote late last night after an all-day session and ratifies the report of the International Executive Board introduced yesterday recommending the termination of the strike. The action of the convention carries a recommendation of further efforts to unionize the mines of Colorado, and a pledge to reduce the wage scale in the unionized mines to the level of the scale paid by the large companies.

The strike in the northern Colorado coal fields, of which the state-wide strike was a continuation, was called April 4, 1910. The state-wide strike, which was called September 23, 1913, virtually paralyzed the industry in Colorado.

The toll of the strike is estimated at $18,000,000, of which $6,000,000 is loss of wages. At least sixty-six persons were killed

WAR TAX STAMP ON TEACHERS' WARRANTS NOT NEEDED HERE

That other counties were having trouble through the fact that many of their teacher's warrants required 25-cent federal stamps upon them was called to the attention of County Superintendent Mitchell today, and the same matter was taken up by County Treasurer Joplin with the First National Bank.

It appears that in some of the counties an arrangement is followed by which teacher's warrants are cashed at banks when the teacher signs on the back a printed power of attorney. Under Uncle Sam's new revenue laws, a power of attorney must have a 25-cent stamp attached thereto. To avoid these stamps, the counties using the power of attorney system is doing away with it. The matter gives no concern here, for the system has not been used. The warrants go through a bank and the county officers accept the indorsement of the bank guaranteeing the warrant.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.—Advertisement.

PLANS TO STOP ABUSES OF INITIATIVE

Such is Proposal Made by State Senator Chandler of Fresno

FAVORS APPOINTMENT OF THE JUDICIARY

Ballot May Be Shortened by Making Several Offices Appointive

FRESNO, Dec. 9.—Senator W. F. Chandler announced yesterday that he will introduce a bill at the next session of the legislature regulating the manner of obtaining signatures to petitions authorizing a vote on initiative and referendum measures. The recall will be included in the same proposed bill, but it is likely that very few of the heavier restrictions will be applied to it, as the right has been employed to such a small extent in the state. Chandler believes that to eliminate the evil of getting out so many initiative measures will insure a lighter ballot and at the same time serve to prevent the passage of laws that are often proposed by self-seeking associations, firms or corporations. He declares that he does not want to make the restrictions in getting signatures to initiative petitions so that it would be practically impossible for people to bring about the passage of a law desired by the people, but overlooked by the legislators. One method to stop the gathering of names by individuals who make it a business to put through initiative petitions for so much per name, is to pass a law making it unlawful to hire any person to solicit signatures. Then to do away with unfairness, the law might provide that some county official be responsible for the genuineness of the signatures. Chandler says that deputies to this official can be provided for in various sections of each county so that voters will not have much difficulty in registering for an initiative, referendum or recall proceeding.

Appointive Judiciary
Chandler believes in an appointive state judiciary, so far as the Superior, Appellate and Supreme courts are concerned, and will introduce a bill making that a constitutional amendment. He said: "A judge really has nothing to ask the people to elect him on, further than his personality and legal training. He cannot go out in a campaign and say to the people that if they will elect him he will render certain kinds of decisions. He has got to weigh every case as to the merits of the evidence submitted. It would save trouble in campaigns and I believe it would insure better general results from the bench to have the judges of those three courts appointed by the governor. This would also shorten the ballot."

Favors Short Ballot
A bill or amendment, providing for a shorter ballot by making the offices of state treasurer, surveyor general, attorney general and secretary of state appointive, will be introduced by Chandler. According to the present status of campaigning for these offices, Chandler says the average office seeker is not known by one out of a hundred voters that must elect him. He said that to make the offices appointive instead of elective, will probably insure better men for the job than are sometimes elected.

Chandler will also introduce a bill for the shutting out of water that might be flowed into oil sands. These four measures are the ones that are considered of the greatest importance to the state at the present time by the Fresno senator-elect. He said last night that if any one should introduce a bill calling for either of the laws he proposes he will be saved the trouble and will give his support. He will probably take up other matters concerning bills and amendments after he arrives in Sacramento or before, but at present is devoting considerable time to the proposed propositions.

NEWPORT BEACH IS LIKELY TO DEMAND A NEW TOWNSHIP

People on Bay Find it Inconvenient to Take Troubles to Huntington Beach

Newport News: A move has been set on foot to form a separate township out of Newport Beach, as it is very inconvenient for people of this city to have to go to Huntington Beach—and the man who was elected to the position of Justice of the Peace at the recent election had a majority of 130 cast against him at the recent election here.

A small duck boat belonging to Anton Suttora either drifted away during the storm of Sunday night or was stolen. The rowboat was anchored near Suttora's big launch in the bay, and has not been seen since. On the same night someone broke into the cabin of the launch, but could not start the engine, as the battery had been taken out.

HUGE WATERSPOUT MENACES VESSELS

Sea Phenomenon Off Point Piedra Manca Forces Craft to Flight

SANTA BARBARA, Dec. 9.—Encountering a huge waterspout twenty miles southwest of Point Piedra Blanca and having to put on forced draught in order to escape it, the vessel being at one time only 150 yards from the terrifying phenomenon, is the unusual story told by officers and sailors of the lumber schooner Chelalis, which arrived here Monday.

The Spout soon became 150 feet high and at its base was a mad vortex of seething water, whirling around in a circular, twisting manner and finally ascending into the spot itself. The captain ordered forced draught put on. The boilers were fired and steam was crowded into the engines. Another boat nearby was seen making desperate efforts to escape.

CO-OPERATIVE KITCHENS

Much newspaper comment has been caused by an experiment at Montclair, N. J., in co-operative cooking. Many co-operative kitchens have failed because they took little pains to satisfy the whims of customers. This experiment tries to provide each household with what it wants.

It has always seemed strange to men that women have never joined forces more extensively to save needless duplication in the work of cooking. It would be nearly as easy to prepare ten dinners of roast beef as one, thus saving the cost of nine kitchen fires and servants' wages.

Many people of moderate means who have always hired a servant find themselves appalled by modern conditions. English-speaking girls have largely gone into stores and factories. The larger part of domestic service today is performed at a high price by raw-boned peasant women from the remotest sections of Europe. If you ask them to bring you a fork, they get a glass of water. If you vary a hair from the established order, if one morning you eat hash for breakfast, instead of eggs, their minds are completely bewildered.

The maintenance of a complete restaurant equipment in every home does seem a needless waste. People who live in city apartment houses learn to adjust themselves to the regimen of a cafe, and enjoy the freedom from domestic cares.

Perhaps the idea will spread into many neighborhoods of individual houses. Gangs of cleaners could come around at fixed hours to put houses to rights. These are mysteries beyond the knowledge of the average man. On the face of it, the co-operative kitchen idea looks good. The experiment referred to will be watched with interest.

Honestly, it will surprise you how well we can make that old suit look. Let us clean and press it for you. Modern Dry Cleaning Co., 519 N. Main street.

THE WAR TAX IN RELATION TO SHIPMENTS BY RAIL FREIGHT

As many shippers of freight are in doubt as to the provisions of the new Emergency Internal Revenue law, insofar as it applies to freight shipments, the Southern Pacific Company, through Freight Traffic Manager G. W. Luce, is endeavoring to make all points clear.

"The law provides that a one-cent revenue stamp be placed on each bill of lading, manifest, or similar memorandum," says Luce. "The shipper must affix this stamp to the bill of lading, and the railroads cannot accept and forward a shipment until this is done. Such is the ruling of the United States Treasury Department."

"The department has also ruled that where freight is accepted at non-agency stations, it must be receipted for by the conductor accepting it. He must see to it that the stamp is attached to each of such receipts and cancelled as required by regulations before such shipment can be accepted. In the case of perishables or other instances where such receipts cannot be given by conductors, the goods may be accepted and transported in advance of the affixing of the stamp, but in that event the receipt must be delivered to the destination agent and he must require the stamp from the consignee.

"To make it even plainer, the law provides that this stamp must be affixed before the railroads can accept a shipment; and in cases of perishables, they cannot deliver the shipment until the stamp is affixed on the receipt and cancelled. The law is penal, not civil. Its violation by any person or corporation is punishable in the Federal courts."

"The shipper or person is required to cancel the stamp, by writing across the face his initials and the date. Some shippers have been under the impression that, because the carriers have a limited supply of stamps on hand for the accommodation of their customers, the stamps were to be distributed by the roads free. This impression is erroneous. The law provides that the shipper pay for the stamp, affix, and cancel it."

"For the convenience of its customers, the Southern Pacific has distributed a limited supply of stamps to its agents, that they may be obtained from the latter until the government has completed its arrangements for distributing them through its own agencies."

THE "EDUCATED" MAN

Boston Globe

To be educated in the best sense of the word, says an erudite professor in the University of Chicago, who is right, a man must be able to truthfully answer in the affirmative all these questions:

Has education made you public-spirited?

Has it made you a brother to the weak?

Have you learned how to make friends and to keep them?

Do you know what it is to be a friend yourself?

Can you look an honest man or a pure woman in the eye?

Do you see anything to love in a little child?

Will a lonely dog follow you in the street?

Can you be high-minded and happy in the meanest drudgeries of life?

Do you think washing dishes and hoeing corn just as compatible with high thinking as piano playing and golf?

Are you good for anything yourself?

Can you be happy alone?

Can you look out on the world and see anything except dollars and cents?

Can you look into a mud puddle by the wayside and see a clear sky?

Can you see anything in the puddle but mud?

Can you look into the sky at night and see beyond the stars?

Whosoever replies "yes" to every query in the list, without doing violence to his conscience is really "educated," whether he has seen the inside of a college or not.

FOREST NOTES

To guard against tree repair fakers, or quack tree surgeons, the Massachusetts Forestry Association will inspect the shade trees belonging to its members, free of charge.

The Sihlwald, or city forest of Zurich, Switzerland, adds to the town's revenues $7.20 per acre a year, reducing the amount needed to be raised through taxation by more than $32,000.

In Northern Idaho and Montana, which had many fires during the past summer, 35 per cent of the fires on national forests were caused by railroads, 26 per cent by lightning, and 10 per cent by campers. The remainder were due to brush burning and other miscellaneous or unknown causes.

A mountain lion recently killed in the Grand Canyon Game Preserve, which adjoins the Tusayan National Forest, measured ten feet from nose to tail. Mountain lions and other beasts of prey, such as wolves, coyotes, and wildcats, are killed by forest officers and game wardens because they are a menace to stock and to game animals.

BOOK REVIEW CLUB

Miss Lois Tedford Entertains Members With Review of 'The Eyes of the World'

The Ebell Book Section met in regular monthly session last evening, with a good attendance. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Tedford, the book reviewed was Harold Bell Wright's much-discussed novel, "The Eyes of the World," and the reviewer was Miss Lois Tedford. Miss Tedford handled the subject in a very delightful way, making the evening one of the most enjoyable in the history of the club.

The reviewer began with a short sketch of the life of the author, relating some of the leading incidents of his career as a preacher and author, and giving a list of his earlier books and the circumstances under which they were written. Many of these facts had been obtained by Miss Tedford from friends who were personally acquainted with Mr. Wright. Miss Tedford had also secured a photograph of the author and his family, a wife and three husky little boys, together with a number of post-card pictures of scenes in the San Bernardino mountains near Redlands, which furnish the setting of the story, all of which added greatly to the interest of the evening. Mr. Wright is a resident of Southern California and the "Fairlands" of the book is conceded to be Redlands and "Fairlands Heights" is Smiley Heights.

With this pleasing introduction Miss Tedford passed on to a synopsis of the plot, selecting for reading the more characteristic and thrilling passages of the story. The plot, at least in places, is crude and overdrawn, and the author displays a tendency of overstatement in his descriptions and use of adjectives, apparently lacking an appreciation of the power of understatement where something is left to the imagination of the reader. The question was raised whether the author's motive was the commercial one of producing a "best seller" or of pushing a genuine reform in the art and literature of the age. In his effort to draw strong contrasts Mr. Wright had produced an insipid under-type of womanhood in Sybil Andrews.

At the conclusion of this very interesting review a general discussion was entered upon out of which developed some variety of opinion as to the merits of the book, the motives of the author and the probable effect upon the public mind. Some of the speakers thought it would stir up public discussion out of which good would come as a result of making evil repulsive, while others were disposed to believe that the evil and the suggestiveness of evil contained in the book would have precisely the opposite effect and outweigh any good that might result.

SUCCESSFUL BAZAAR

Episcopal Ladies Please Public; Event Continues This Evening

The annual bazaar under the supervision of the ladies of the Episcopal Church, beginning yesterday noon and continuing through this afternoon and evening, had a most auspicious opening yesterday in Guild hall of the church on Seventh street. The spacious room was prettily decorated and with the booths and tables presented an attractive appearance.

Among the features proving interesting to the large number of people patronizing the event were the children's table, where toys and various pretty things to wear were displayed; the men's table, well supplied with men's furnishings that were readily sold; the tea table, presided over by Mrs. Rufus S. Chase, and the fish pond, which was amusing to both young and old.

The chicken dinner, served from 5:30 to 7 o'clock, proved a magnet that attracted a most generous patronage. Following the dinner, a musical program was given, with Mrs. James S. Rice, Percy Richards, C. W. Brakeman and Alan A. Revell taking part. All responded to encourage the bazaar. A large variety of articles will be displayed this afternoon and evening in the bazaar, so no one will lack for choice in buying. A chicken dinner will be served at the same hours this evening as yesterday, and the public is invited to partake of it. Prices for the bazaar and dinner are moderate. A musical program under the direction of Mr. Richards will be given this evening. The program follows:

GROWING H. S. SOCIETY

Auba Yama Numa Find Much Joy in Life; Soon to Have 'Steak Roast' in Hills

That a "steak roast" is to be given at Orange County Park some time in the near future was decided yesterday afternoon by the Aubu Yama Numa Society of the Polytechnic High School. This organization has been holding some enjoyable outings at various nearby places, one of the most delightful of which was a "waffle" and marshmallow bake at Balboa about two weeks ago. The outings are always well chaperoned and every member invariably returns saying that he "had the time of his life."

James Vance was elected president of the society at last night's meeting. Vance made an effective inauguration speech which was greatly enjoyed by the society. New members were also received.

W. C. T. U. MEETING

'Our Mexican Neighbors,' Topic Interestingly Dealt With by Able Speakers

The W. C. T. U. held a very interesting and instructive meeting yesterday afternoon in the First M. E. church. Rev. E. J. Inwood led the devotional service.

Mrs. Albright sang two solos. She was accompanied by Mrs. Snow. The subject for the afternoon was "Our Mexican Neighbors." Mr. Hammond, teacher of Spanish in the high school, gave a splendid paper on the subject. Mr. Hammond has studied this question thoroughly and is in touch with the Mexicans in their church work, hence is perfectly competent to discuss this subject. Prof. J. A. Cranston also spoke on the question from an educational viewpoint and told of the present situation in the schools. As it had not been possible to keep Washington school strictly a school for Mexican children, they are being taught in the different schools of the city, and by coming in contact with other school children they are enabled to acquire English more quickly.

Prof. Francis J. Haines sang a solo accompanied by Mrs. Haines. Rev. Mr. Gonzales, pastor of the Mexican Methodist church, gave a most instructive address, speaking of the conditions of his people. Mr. Gonzales spoke in Spanish and he had for his interpreter, Mr. Sanchez, a young man recently here from Mexico. Very valuable information was received from all of the addresses regarding the Mexican people here. It was strongly emphasized that the term "Mexican" should be used in speaking of these people instead of using the word "Spanish." These terms are frequently used incorrectly.

The Mexican church in Santa Ana is in need of a folding organ that can easily be moved around, and if any one could make a donation of such an organ it would be gratefully received.

The union voted to assist in serving a banquet to be given by the Y. P. B. of the county, who are to hold an all-day institute in this city on January 2. Mrs. J. N. Anderson, Mrs. C. W. Burns and Mrs. W. H. Thomas were appointed a committee to make the general arrangements.

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING
(Outlook)

Fifteen years ago nearly every retail store in the country remained open until late at night from one to three weeks before Christmas. This meant that hundreds of salespeople, bookkeepers, wrappers and delivery men worked such long hours that Christmas meant to them, not joy and good will, but exhaustion and suffering. The responsibility or this condition of affairs lay with a thoughtless shopping public, which believed that it must do its Christmas shopping in crowds and in a rush at the eleventh hour.

Lately there has been a revulsion against this annual exhibition of selfish stupidity; and a result of the agitation that has ensued for a "safe and sane" Christmas there has been a lessening of fatigue and misery for the employees of retail stores. Still there are altogether too many unintelligent shoppers and selfish shopkeepers. Last year in New York City six large retail stores and many small neighborhood stores remained open to the public until 10 o'clock or later the week before Christmas. In three of these larger stores, moreover, the employees received no extra compensation for their extra exertions. After a working day of 14 hours in one of these stores last year a waist saleswoman, trembling with fatigue, said to a solicitous friend:

"Tired? I have been wishing all day that I was a horse so that I would have somebody to look out for my interests."

Shop early and avoid the rush, which exhausts alike your patience and the nerves of the girl behind the counter. Make it a safe and sane Christmas.

The annual bazaar and dinner being held by the Episcopal Church ladies in the Guild Hall of the church, will be continued this evening. Dinner will be served from 5:30 to 7 o'clock, and a musical program will be rendered.

POPE'S VISIT ON FEMINISM OF INTEREST TO CATHOLIC WOMEN

(BY ALICE ROHE, United Press Staff Correspondent)

ROME Nov. 15.—(By Mail to New York.)—Catholic women the world over are awaiting with interest the announcement of the policy of Pope Benedict XV in regard to the so-called woman question—feminism.

The attitude of the late Holy Father, Pope Pius X, is well known and inasmuch as Benedict XV is deviating from the simple and somewhat homely policy of the "Peasant Pope" in regard to ceremonials, Catholic women are wondering whether the rigor of conventions will give them less or the mastery of diplomacy will give the greater freedom.

At the heads of the "Unione delle donne Italiane" whose branch in America is the Catholic Woman's League, is Donna Cristini Bandini. Under the papacy of Pope Pius Donna Bandini enjoyed the greatest favor and now that her presidency has been sanctioned by Pope Benedict, who will soon grant her a private audience, the women of Italy are anticipating an outline of the Holy Father's policy at that time. Then Pope Benedict will indicate to the head of the "Unione delle donne Italiane" his attitude, his desire in regard to so-called feminism.

Feminism among the Catholic women of Italy is, however, a far different thing from feminism in America.

Pope Pius X, who encouraged the work of Donna Bandini, looked with disapproval upon the trend of feminism in its accepted sense. While in America where women have acquired so much in their convention we are accustomed to hear the cry that they have no place in politics, here in Rome where the church regards woman's place as the home exclusively, her mission in the "feminine" movement is essentially political. Indeed Pope Pius X intimated to the Catholic women of the Unione that their interests outside the home should be confined to the church. But strange to say in direct contrast to the broad charitable work of Catholic women in America, the mission of the Unione in Italy is purely political. So far their efforts have been mainly directed toward establishing religious instruction in the schools and the gaining of permission for religious processions.

Whether Pope Benedict XV will broaden the field of endeavor is a much discussed question.

As will be remembered Pope Benedict XV when Archbishop of Bologna placed the ban upon the tango. But quite naturally tangoism and feminism have nothing in common, so that rather urgent message of disapproval sent to his people is not regarded as an indication of an anti-liberal policy.

As a diplomat of splendid attainments and finesse the present pontiff is expected to bring a new light upon the field of feminism, which, outside of Italy is considered one of the greatest questions of the hour.

Italy, however, is essentially reactionary in regard to "woman's evolution."

Ask an intelligent Italian woman—one who speaks three or four languages,—what is the status of feminism in Italy, and she does not know nor understand the significance of the question. She will give you the names, provided she is one who reads the daily papers, of certain women who are agitating the evolution of their own particular class—their emancipation from certain restrictions, but as a great wave of sex evolution—emancipation—the issue is understood among a mere handful of thinkers.

In a recent interview Prof. Anita Pagliari, educator and writer, spoke without restriction in regard to what she called the political puppetism of the Catholic Women's Union. That they are separated from the broader feminism is her point. Quite naturally the Catholic women look with disfavor upon the alien camp while they await anxiously word from the Holy Father as to just how far they may be permitted to enter into the woman's work in its newer interpretation.

Pope Benedict XV, realizing the immense power which may be wielded by woman in social and political work is expected to broaden the field of possibilities of the "Unione," such noted writers as Dora Melegari demonstrated strong reactionary tendency—deploring the actions of radical feminists—as they apparently regard suffragettes.

The discussion, however, of feminists and feminini concern not the Catholic women who are awaiting the audience granted Donna Cristini Bandini. Then Benedict XV, who, despite the great problem besetting the beginning of his papal reign, has ever an eye upon the work of the Catholic women—will decide whether or not they shall enjoy greater or less freedom than in the days of the "peasant Pope."

ANAHEIM, Dec. 9.—A regular meeting of the directors of the Anaheim Water Company was held December 5.

FULLERTON, Dec. 9.—According to statements of local fruit men the navel orange crop for the present season will not be more than 80 per cent of an average crop and sweets and St. Michaels will not be more than 65 per cent. These estimates are for Orange county.

Up to this time last year about fifty carloads of fruit had been shipped east for the holiday trade and up to this date not one has been moved this season but it is said five or six cars of local Fullerton and Placentia fruit may be shipped out next week, although some of the local fruit companies are advising their members not to ship any oranges east until after January 1.

ANAHEIM

BOY INJURED IN BUMP BY AN AUTO HITTING BUILDING

ANAHEIM, Dec. 9.—Floyd Emmet, son of Mrs. B. S. Sterns, was run down by an auto driven by Mrs. Lange of West Anaheim Monday evening about 4:15 o'clock and was injured to some extent. One of his legs was badly scratched and he received minor bruises.

The accident occurred as Mrs. Lange was endeavoring to make the turn off Center street into Palm street. She was making the turn at about fifteen miles an hour, according to spectators, and almost ran down a school boy on a bicycle. When she dodged him she struck young Emmet and carried him on the guard until her machine had hit the building on the corner formerly occupied by Dr. Beebe as an office. The spring rammed a big hole into the side of the building after jumping the car. Luckily young Emmet did not get the full force of the jam or he would have been killed. He was rushed to the hospital where his injuries were given treatment and later was taken to his home.

When Officer German went out to see about the accident the owner of the car, Chas. Lange, is reported to have told him that the youngster had no business to be on the sidewalk and that he (Lange) had paid ten dollars to run his car and he did not intend to have an advance guard to clear the way when he went driving.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

Rather a delightful surprise on the market at this late date has been the arrival of raspberries and blackberries grown outdoors as well as a fine assortment of strawberries in the past few days since the rain. The strawberries yesterday morning sold all the way from 5 to 11 cents a basket, the high-priced fruit being of the long stem variety. The blackberries were offered from 13 to 15 cents a basket and only a few trays were received. Raspberries were more plentiful and sold all the way from 12 to 15. There was a good demand for them from the hotels.

Some very fancy northern quinces are arriving. They are exceptionally large and are selling at 85 cents a lug box. Alligator pears are a little more plentiful, coming from Florida and a few from Mexico and selling from $4 to $6 per dozen. Some Bartlett pears are still obtainable. Malaga, Cornichon, red Emperor and Tokay are the grapes that are still obtainable in quantity.

Egg receipts were 100 cases. May storage were offered in a jobbing way at 25½¢, April at 26¢; eastern fresh at 28½¢; seconds at 24 and Chinese eggs were also offered at any price obtainable but failed to move. The northern market on eggs continued at 40 cents. Butter in the north was quoted at 31½¢ and here remained unchanged.

CAVALRY HORSE DEMAND IS SLIGHT

U. S. Government Buying a Few Here, Europe None

A BIG DEMAND FOR DRAFT HORSES, MULES

Powers Making Little Effort to Buy Horses in the San Joaquin Valley

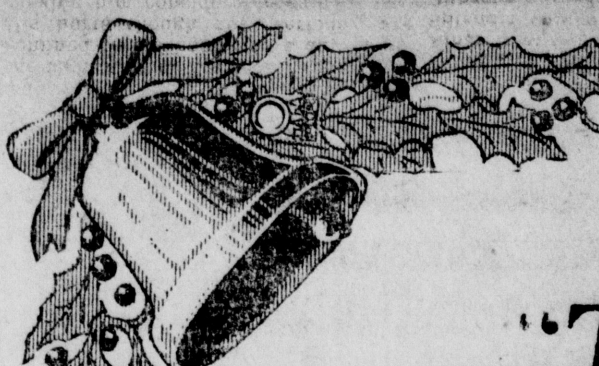

Very few cavalry horses are being bought in Santa Ana and Orange county by agents of the United States government, and none are being bought by agents of warring European powers, according to C. M. McCain, owner of the horse and mule market at Second and Main streets. A short time ago agents of Los Angeles dealers were here and bought up about a dozen head of cavalry horses for shipment to Fort Worth, Texas. Occasionally agents come down and look around, but the scarcity of cavalry horses in Southern California and the high prices asked for those to be had is responsible for but very few sales. "In addition to the fact that prices on cavalry stock are high," said McCain, "is the fact that it costs about $25 per head to ship a carload of horses to middle western points. California dealers cannot compete with eastern dealers for this reason." McCain states that the heavy draft horse and mule market is very satisfactory. "We can't get enough first-class, heavy mules to supply the demand," McCain says. "The polo pony is the type of horse that is wanted for the army. There are very few of this type of horse in this locality. The mere fact that a horse is light and of the driving type is not sufficient to make it fitted for army use. A good cavalry horse weighs about 1000 pounds but in addition to this it must be stocky and absolutely clean, that is, free from wire cuts and other blemishes." The following account from the Fresno Republican shows what conditions obtain in the northern part of the state:

"Agents of belligerent powers in Europe are making little effort to obtain cavalry horses in Fresno or other sections of the San Joaquin valley, according to statements made yesterday by local horsemen. Fresno dealers assert, however, that agents of the United States army have visited Fresno with a view of buying horses. "Ten days ago an agent went through several stables in Fresno, looking for cavalry horses, but failed to find animals up to the government requirements. The agent was here two days and departed without making a purchase. "In Fresno and other parts of the San Joaquin valley the market seems to be overstocked with horses weighing from 900 to 1200 pounds. Prices are very low, ranging from $75 to $100 a head. Cavalry horses weigh about a thousand pounds. A good demand has been experienced for draft animals. "The automobile is believed to be the reason for the decrease in the demand for horses, especially light driving stock. According to local traders, feed conditions do not affect the situation. "Officials of the California National Guard have taken up the purchase of horses for Troop A of Bakersfield and to this end Col. F. F. Canon, assistant adjutant-general, is making a tour of the state looking for animals fit for service."

WIFE OF KENT SAYS NO BLOW AIMED BY HIM

Woman Declares That in Excitement Ray Wilson Was Pounding His Father

Declaring that her husband, Frank C. Kent, who is charged with the murder of I. O. Wilson, did not strike Wilson over the head, Mrs. Kent today gave her testimony before Judge West and the jury trying the Kent case. Mrs. Kent's positiveness and abrupt manner of answering questions brought forth many a smile this morning. The portion of her testimony that created the most amusement was her description of the fracas in which her husband was engaged, and in which Mrs. Kent took a hand. She said that she saw I. O. Wilson and Ray Wilson talking to her husband. She told the Wilsons to get off of their land, not to come around there and make trouble. She said that I. O. Wilson advanced toward her, and that her husband reached out with his rake and caught him by the shoulder and pulled him around. That testimony is in direct contradiction to testimony given by Ray Wilson and two men employed on the Wilson ranch. They all said that Kent held the rake in a striking position and brought it down on Wilson. Ray said that on the first blow his father's face was scratched by the prongs of the rake, and that after the head of the rake broke off, Kent used it as a club to strike I. O. Wilson. Mrs. Kent says there were no blows, but that after Wilson was stopped there was a mix-up that ended with Kent being thrown to the ground with I. O. Wilson on top of him. Mrs. Kent said that in the excitement Ray beat wildly with his fists and was on top of his father beating him instead of Kent. Mrs. Kent threw Ray off the heap, and had him on the ground and was pounding him when Wilson's two employees separated the combatants. Mrs. Kent testified that Mrs. Brooks had told her that Wilson had threatened to harm Mr. and Mrs. Kent.

INCORPORATION PROPOSED FOR GARDEN GROVE

Orange Growers' Association to Be Organized Soon for New Groves

Property Owners Are Urged to Co-operate in Work of the Board of Forestry

GARDEN GROVE, Dec. 8.—Incorporation of Garden Grove was one of the numerous proposals made last night at the Garden Grove Improvement Association banquet. The formation of an orange growers' association and the beginning of roadside tree planting were discussed as immediate advancements to be made in this section. The success of the Walnut Growers' Association and the success of the Domestic Water Company were cited as achievements of the last few months.

Altogether the meeting was one of unusual importance and interest. A large crowd was gathered at Y. M. C. A. Hall, where the banquet was served. Splendid music, both vocal and instrumental, added to the pleasure of the gathering. H. A. Lake, president of the association, turned the meeting over to P. M. German.

Planting of Trees
A. S. Bradford of Placentia, and

T. E. Stephenson of Santa Ana, member of the Board of Forestry, and J. M. Grant, county forester, addressed the meeting. Bradford outlined the work of the forestry board, saying it is the intention of the board to do its work of beautifying the roads in as economical fashion as possible. He said co-operation was essential, and he urged property owners to work with the forestry department. Stephenson said that Garden Grove had shown a good deal of interest in tree planting, and at the suggestion of a Grove committee the board would do its first planting on the north and south main road at Garden Grove. The Arizona cypress had been selected. Grant had with him an Arizona cypress about three feet high that had grown from a three-inch seedling since July 1. He put it up as a prize for the best suggestion offered for the betterment of Garden Grove, and said it would be the first tree planted from the county nursery, the first tree in a project of magnitude. This tree was later turned over to the Parent-Teacher Association and will be planted on the school grounds.

Grant outlined the work, and gave an interesting talk on big trees of the world. He answered numerous questions.

Shirley Poppies

Mrs. Oertley of the Woman's Club said that the club proposed to beautify Garden Grove by planting the shrubs. Shirley poppies had been suggested as one flower to be used.

Orange Association

D. E. Huff of Orange, secretary of the Orange County Fruit Exchange, said that it is proposed to organize an orange growers' association at Garden Grove, in which territory there are now about 1000 acres of oranges, of which ninety per cent are Valencia. He gave expert advice on the cost of building a packing house and on operation. He said that for the present an $8000 house with 20000 or 30000 in machinery would start the association off handily. He said that the territory would be gone over soon to see how strong an association can be formed.

He explained that the association is non-profit, purely co-operative and especially organized for getting the best possible prices.

"You have fine groves here," said Huff. "There is no reason why you cannot raise just as good Valencias as are raised the other side of the river."

Successful Year

That the association plan is a good one was testified to by Chester Lee, manager of the Garden Grove Walnut Association. He said that the season just finished, the first in the new packing house, was entirely successful, and that the product of the Garden Grove section was of high grade.

J. A. Knapp said that the new water company's plans have met with success, but that the co-operation of the people is necessary.

Incorporation

W. E. Perry, editor of the Garden Grove News, advanced the incorporation plan. He declared that incorporation would aid the city in its growth, as through an organized municipality concerted action could be secured upon various projects for the betterment of the community. He declared that it is only a matter of time until incorporation is necessary, and he thought now is the time to take the step.

J. D. Price replied, declaring that he is opposed to incorporation. J. L. Arkley replied to Price, and soon there was a lively discussion in which a number of those present took part. The question is a live one in Garden Grove, and it is one that nearly everyone has an opinion or is forming on.

appropriations for rivers and harbors work from $53,000,000, as provided by the Senate committee, or $48,000,000 as provided by the House of Representatives, to a lump sum of $20,000,000.

Vigorous defenses of the projects which were so bitterly assailed by Senators Burton of Ohio and Kenyon of Ohio were prepared by a number of prominent speakers who were ready to address the convention today. These include Senator Saulsbury of Delaware, who made a strong fight in Congress for the purchase and improvement of the Chesapeake and Delaware canal; Senator Sheppard of Texas, who differed with Burton and Kenyon as to the merits of the Trinity river appropriation; and Representative Raker of California, whose pet projects, the Sacramento and Feather rivers improvements were allowed to go by the board by Congress. It was the Trinity river, undoubtedly, however, which got the hardest knocks. One serious-minded senator asked if the appropriation was for the macadamizing of the stream's bed, while Senator Gallinger, Republican floor leader, asked if the appropriation included expenditures for artesian wells to supply water for the river.

When Senator Sheppard had the temerity to declare that a boat was even then on its way up the river, Senator Norris inquired if it were coming up on a flat car.

President J. Hampton Moore of the Atlantic Deep Waterways Association has a stinging speech prepared, entitled "The Pork Barrel," which is a reply to what he regards as the flippant criticisms in many newspapers of the river and harbors improvement propaganda.

NEW PROCESS TO STRENGTHEN STEEL

Nobel Prize Winner Discovers Revolutionary Method for Improving Metal

CHICAGO, Dec. 9.—The discovery of a revolutionary method of treating steel, by which it is made several times the strength of the present product, was announced before the National Academy of Sciences yesterday by Prof. A. A. Michelson, winner two years ago of the Nobel prize for physical research work.

Professor Michelson said the new steel would revolutionize warfare by making fortifications as well as ammunition many times stronger than at present. The new steel would advance peaceful projects, he said, by permitting the erection of sky-scrapers to heights never yet undertaken, and the construction of greater suspension bridges.

Demonstrating, Professor Michelson took a bar of the new steel and twisted it. Two kilograms of force, he said, were used. He laid the bar aside and in a few minutes repeated the twisting. Instead of breaking, the bar withstood an application of three kilograms of power. Four times the experiment was repeated and each time a greater application of force was withstood.

Professor Michelson said the process might be carried on until steel appliances might be made that would be practically indestructible.

Opportunities In Mining

There is no decline in prospecting for mineral. These mountains in this Golden State of ours continue to present opportunity for the man with the hammer, with the pick, with the grubstake packed on his faithful old burro. And this prospector and this burro continue to tread the mountains of California, of Nevada, of Utah, of all the Great Rocky range and every day some new discovery is made. Here in California right at the doorway of a city in the Southern portion of the State quartz veins have been uncovered that glistened and gleamed with yellow metal, that assayed $9,600 per ton. This would indicate that the days of the prospector had not gone.

The fact is that the country is on the eve of a great mining move, not boom understand, for boom mine days have passed, but a move toward the hills where nature placed the yellow and other precious metals and where it is in vein and fissure and winz and crosscut already developed, where it outcrops on the surface, where the grass roots show gold. Over these hills and mountains this patient prospector wanders breaking off from this ledge, following it along the surface and finally opening up a property that astonishes the world. Speaking of this old time prospector, of the opportunities of today, the Mining and Engineering World says:

"There has been altogether too much said and altogether too much good white paper wasted of late by the 'professional' yellow-legged, sky-scaper mining engineers on the 'Decline in Prospecting.' There has been no decline in prospecting at all; it may be true that a few of the states have been neglected for other newer or more favored fields; but on the whole, when they are all added up, it will be found that there are really more men engaged in looking for mineral today than there has been for years or at least since those who now berate the honorable calling of the prospector have been out of short pants. It is not that there is a shortage of prospecting or of good prospects, but on the other hand, if there is any let-up in mining at all, it is due to other causes.

"One of the causes, if we were called upon to express an opinion, is the lack of real mining men. Not that we are really admitting that there is any let-up, but there are less of the old school of mining, those who swore by and at the prospector and his prospect, in the business today. In the old days the prospector could cash in his prospect for enough to get another grubstake and be away on his journey looking for another. Those were the days of Tevis-O'Brien-Hearst-Haggin-Daly and dozens of others, the days of individual mining. Every one of them left millions; every cent came out of the ground. Every cent of the great Clark fortune has been made in mining, and he is about the last of the old school of great pioneers left.

"The smart man of today, backed up by Mr. Yellowlegs referred to, wants the ore all blocked out, and cannot be induced to put his money into a prospect. That's one reason why so many good looking prospects are lying idle today. However, the prospector continues to do his annual assessment work, and let us hope he will be fortunate enough to uncover sufficient good quartz in this work that the 'expert' will be able to discern the ear-marks of an ore deposit so that he will be enabled to know that it is a mineral claim at least and worthy of development into a mine.

"We have but little patience with the city mining engineer who decries the decline in prospecting or the industry. Our advice to him would be to get out into the field and knock his knuckles against the rock, and with his superior knowledge of formation and ore deposition, where mineral is and where it is not, or where he thinks it ought to be, it should be an easy matter for him to uncover the hidden wealth, as well as become independent as nearly every one of the old timers did in the early days. Let him secure a grub stake as do the prospectors; this ought to be an easy matter; certainly there are people who have confidence in his integrity or ability to stake him for 6 months or a year? With 20 or 100 of such men in the field, certainly something could be accomplished by them. Try it, Mr. Yellowlegs."

Wage Payments Act Invalid

The wage payment law enacted in 1911 entitled "An act providing for payment of wages" has been declared unconstitutional by the District Court of Appeals in San Francisco. The court found the law unconstitutional because its enforcement may result in imprisonment for debt. Imprisonment is not named in the penalty's provides, but imprisonment is a legal sequel of any misdemeanor, and as a consequence imprisonments for debt actually have resulted.

The test case was brought by Arthur Crane, an attorney, sued by Ellen Ballard, his stenographer, for $30 wages. He was arrested, but applied for a writ of habeas corpus. In issuing the writ the court declared the statute invalid.

"I shall be the last man in the United States to be imprisoned for debt," was the statement of Crane on receiving his release.

One Industry That Is Helped

Rubber is playing a large part in the present war. Foreign correspondence indicates that the extensive use of motor transport by all the armies means an immense destruction of tires. The commodity is in great request in Red Cross work, and the manufacture of large numbers of the inflatable rubber collars for life-saving purposes at sea, a suggestion of the R. G. A., is reported in active progress. The use of a solid layer of rubber as a backing for armour plate on warships, or in some similar form, is suggested, and doubtless commends itself to holders of securities in rubber manufacturing companies.

Pay in Food Instead of Cash

J. Sorck, of New York, representative of an American importer with a factory at Val St. Lambert, Belgium, has discussed with the Belgium Relief Commission the advisability of paying his employees in food instead of money. He has been able to communicate with the plant only twice since the war opened. He said his firm owed 5000 employees about $30,000 and was ready to pay this amount in cash, but he thought the workmen would prefer to get supplies.

Independent Producers Agency

In a book just issued by Ralph Arnold and V. R. Garitas, well known geologists of Los Angeles and who are also well known in the scientific world, gives some interesting information regarding the Independent Oil Producing Agency and what it has accomplished. The book is entitled "Geology and Technology of the California Oil Fields." Speaking of the Independent Producers Agency, the authors, after outlining the marketing conditions which have forced the small producers to sell to the big companies at whatever price the latter have seen fit to offer, say:

"In an effort to improve these conditions, the Independent Oil Producers' Agency was organized, and later, with the help of the Union Oil Company, the Producers' Transportation Company built pipe lines from the valley to the coast. The Producers' Agency became a sort of clearing-house for a large portion of the oil produced by independent companies charging for handling the output 1/2 cent per barrel. "The Agency has no interest in the transportation company, the only tie being a contract which binds them for a term of ten years, beginning with 1910. The Producers' Transportation Company charges the Agency's members from 17 to 22 cents per barrel for piping the oil from the fields to Port Hartford, on the coast. The Union Oil Company acts as the selling agent for the Agency, and is empowered to make contracts, subject to the Agency's approval, for the whole or any part of the combined production.

"From the foregoing, it will be noted that up to the present time the local marketing conditions of the San Joaquin Valley oil produced by independent operators have only been slightly improved by the organization of the Producers' Transportation Company; in fact, with oil selling at San Francisco at 70 cents per barrel, there is practically no opportunity for the producer to market his oil there at a profit, as Port Hartford is 215 miles from San Francisco, and the oil has to be transported in tank steamers.

"It is expected by many familiar with the oil situation that with the passing of the present period of overproduction the price of oil will be materially increased, as soon as the large companies are compelled to draw from their stock to fulfill their selling contracts. While the producer, up to the present time, has benefited only slightly by the organization of the Agency and the Producers' Transportation Company, this latter company, on the other hand, has become a very lucrative enterprise. It is evident therefore, that even under the present unfavorable conditions, the position of independent producers would be improved had they been able at the outset to build their own pipe line and operate it to their mutual benefit."

American Trade Booming

That the United States is rapidly increasing its trade and that general conditions show wonderful improvement is seen in the orders given American manufacturers and the resumption of great industrial plants. Steel mills have increased their forces, packing plants have been awarded large contracts for tinned meats abroad, our cotton is being taken by China and Japan, coal mines are resuming operations, stock exchanges in the various parts of the country, closed since July 30, are re-opening and the prosperity wave becomes larger every day. A new day for American industries has dawned.

American Production Metals

In the value of metals produced the United States passed the million dollar mark in 1913 according to statistics compiled by the Geological Survey. The exact figures of the value is $1,016,607,858. In tonnage iron ore production necessarily was the greatest, 66,800, 270 short tons; copper was second with 36,336,682 short tons of which the Western states produced 28,427,543 short tons. The grand total tonnage of all metals was 134,215,858 short tons almost five million more than in 1912 and thirty millions more than in 1911.

Would Suspend Rate Increase

Thirteen railroad commissioners representing California, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Dakota, Texas and Washington have petitioned the Interstate Commerce Commission to suspend increases in freight rates proposed by Western railroads effective December 15.

Utah Profits By War

The Knight Woolen Mills at Provo, Utah, has received a rush order for 50,000 army blankets through the San Francisco representatives of a foreign nation not named in the order. In view, however, that there are so many former Britons in that section it is presumed that it was from England.

Increase Your Wealth

by investing in land near

Templeton or Paso Robles

This locality has been producing a very superior quality of apples, pears, prunes, cherries, grapes, almonds, and walnuts without irrigation for many years, but it was only recently that any particular attention was paid to the development of the fruit and nut industry.

During the last year or two many thousands of acres have been set out by men from Southern California and orders have been placed with nurseries for trees to plant five thousand acres this coming season.

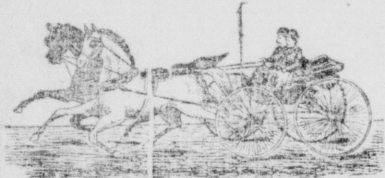

The Templeton-Paso Robles district produces a wider range of products than is grown in any other one locality between Los Angeles and San Francisco. This locality possesses several distinctive features which make it specially attractive for investment and home building.

Good ranches, most any size, $75.00 to $150.00 per acre. Well located young orchards in fine condition at $275.00 to $400.00 per acre. Near railway station and within easy motor trucking distance of deep water port puts you in touch with the world's markets.

RAILWAY WOULD ESTABLISH A SEAL FARM

Has Petitioned for Right to Put in Structure in Alamitos Bay

The Pacific Electric is going to establish a seal farm at the entrance of Alamitos Bay.

"Farm" is generally thought to have some connection with agriculture, but that it may also have aquatic meanings is indicated by its use in the petition of the Pacific Electric. That petition is on file in the United States Engineer's office in Los Angeles. A map is also on file showing what kind of a structure the railway expects to put up, or put in, or put down—which ever term is correct.

According to a notice received by the Board of Supervisors, objections to the proposal will be received by the federal engineer up to 11 a. m., December 15. Objections must be based upon navigation interests.

Alamitos Bay has long been a favorite rendezvous for seal. A few months ago this fact was seized upon as of publicity value, and Bay City straightway changed its name to Seal Beach. But the seals sometimes put out to sea or were so badly scattered that they were not on hand always when visitors were there to look at them.

It is now proposed to erect a pen in the water so that the animals can be kept within seeing distance all the time.

BALBOA

SAYS HE GOT BOYS AS THEY SAT DOWN TO SPLENDID FEAST

BALBOA, Dec. 9.—Interrupting, it is alleged, a feast set out on fine linen in a vacant summer home, Deputy Sheriff Ulrich of this place arrested three youths at Corona Del Mar yesterday afternoon. They are held on charges of burglary.

It is alleged the trio made free with things in the summer cottages of Dr. A. L. Macleish, Mrs. Halliday, Miss Alden and Torey Everett, who lives in Pasadena. They were caught, it is declared, at the Halliday house.

The prisoners give their names as Earl Young, Edward Mitchell and Richard Hunter and say they live in Los Angeles.

STOP THAT COUGH—NOW
When you catch cold, or begin to cough, the first thing to do is to take Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. It penetrates the linings of the throat and lungs and fights the germs of the disease, giving quick relief and natural healing.
